DOC-LA

Catchy beats and hard rhymes: both have been core staples of Hip-Hop since the culture's inception. And while artists of today often circumvent this with gimmicks, an artist that combines the two cannot be denied. It's a simple formula that is and will always be effective. Hailing from Brooklyn, New York, DOC-LA brings this formula to life. Being focused, driven and motivated are the key ingredients to his success.

Influenced by the styles of Tupac, LL Cool J, and Notorious B.I.G., DOC-LA developed a reputation for delivering his own jaw-dropping music. He is known for creating steamy hot tracks that rock every club and street related back-to-back block burning singles. An equally important influence on his sound has been growing up in New York City, particularly his area of Brooklyn.

Faithful, determined and honest, DOC-LA who now resides in Delaware is one of the brightest new stars shining out of the Diamond State. With his electrifying delivery and catchy rap style, Doc-La rivals some of the all time greats and his immense talent can't be denied.

DOC-LA is a breath of fresh air in the oversaturated urban music market and his sound and style refreshes the spirits of Hip-Hop in a way rarely seen. Being a doctor during the day working as a chiropractor and a rap hustler at night, DOC-LA is offering something for everyone and every mood... his music is the perfect soundtrack to your life. It is cinematic, motivational, memorable, exciting and passionate. With a staunch at simply making good music, DOC-LA is sure everyone will relate and love his sound, no matter what age they are. His diversity and marketability has already drawn in the music industry veterans and music fans alike and is growing exponentially.

Signed to his own indie powerhouse Eternal Music Group, DOC-LA is officially putting his Delaware stomping grounds on the map with his undeniable grind and extraordinaire personality.

DOC-LA is the epitome of that Tony Montana mentality. This dynamic and energetic rapper is about to rocket to stardom. With the confidence, determination, and talent that he brings to the table, there is no doubt that we'll all be staying tuned. You can't help but look out for DOC-LA!
