Joe Young Releases Blockbuster Mixtape "Gone Till November" Ft. The Game & Rick Ross

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE // Everybody loves the story of the underdog who turns nothing into something with nothing but his wit and own blood, sweat and tears. When every dime is earned from getting your own hands dirty, respect is given to the grind. Buzzing German rap sensation Joe Young is the epitome of that Tony Montana mentality. This dynamic and energetic rap renegade is about to rocket to stardom!

Tearing through nightspots across Germany and the European hemisphere with his infectious and catchy single, "Don't Fall," the captivating Manhattan born rapper's new song is the perfect song to vibe to and to listen to when riding your whip.

"My single 'Don't Fall' is receiving massive attention in Europe. The beat is dope and it has a classic Hip-Hop feeling that people seem to love and that's the vibe I wanted everybody to feel!" says Joe Young who already collaborated with Hip-Hop heavyweights such as Tyga, Lil Wayne, Raekwon, Pusha T, and Jayo Felony.

The hit single "Don't Fall" is featured on Joe Young's critically acclaimed mixtape "Gone Till November," which is now available for your listening pleasure.

"My mixtape embodies true Hip-Hop! The beats are dope, the production and lyrics are on point. It's the best body of work from me thus far. I really enjoy sharing it with Hip-Hop fans worldwide!" explained Joe Young.

"Gone Till November" showcases why Joe Young is a breath of fresh air in the oversaturated urban music market. The lead singles are making an impact among DJs and fans alike. The media praised project features Rick Ross, The Game, Dave East, No Malice, Cormega, Raekwon and more with production from The Heatmakerz, Amp On The Track and Craze Joe.

Chock full of amazing beats and lyrics, Joe Young's "Gone Till November" is a 15-tracks deep project that refreshes the spirits of Hip-Hop in a way rarely seen. Offering something for everyone and every mood, the mixtape is the perfect soundtrack to your life. From the beginning to the end, this is more than music!
