Born Michael Yeboah, the second generation Ghanaian lived in Gaithersburg and Silver Spring most of his life before finding his new home in Carroll County, Maryland. Da Kid Emm started doing open mic and small shows in high school and found most of his success performing in Baltimore. His sound and style is described as "progressive conscious Hip-Hop, combining realistic stories with hypnotic beats and skilled lyricism". He has been compared to artists like Ace Hood, Big K.R.I.T., Kanye West, and Lupe Fiasco.
